

Last Will & Testament. Dubai Courts.

An official legal document that records the asset owner's instructions regarding accounts, real estate and business assets in the UAE. Once registered with the Dubai Courts, it becomes a direct instruction to the court.

THE PROBLEM

document · binding instruction
to the Dubai Courts

- A bank account is frozen,
preventing payments to contractors
- Completed property cannot be sold or transferred pending court orders
- An off-plan unit is stalled as developers
require court instructions

What You Get

Direct execution

The court does not investigate intent — it proceeds directly to execution based on the Will.

Executor authority

The appointed executor immediately liaises with banks and developers without waiting on court steps.

Real estate & off-plan

For completed property — efficient ownership transfer. For off-plan — the executor continues payments and receives the unit upon completion.

Waqf-scenario protection

Under Article 241 of the UAE Personal Status Law (Jan 2026), assets without a Will and verified heirs may be directed to Waqf. A Will replaces that scenario with direct execution of the owner's intent.

How We Are Different

Wording built for execution

The Will is drafted for direct enforcement by the Dubai Courts — no ambiguities that delay the process.

Real estate & off-plan aware

The Will integrates accounts, completed property and off-plan units into a single execution structure.

Updates accompanied

As family or asset composition changes, we update the Will — executor and structure kept current.

A Will is prepared in 1–2 business days and protects assets continuously. Registration — online via Zoom or in person at the Dubai Courts.
